In addition, the Foundation will enlarge the Union Medical College of Peking, which it has taken over from the missionary agencies which founded it. It is unlerstood that the hospitals will cost at least $1,000,000 each. It is probable that they will not be manned until the war is over. Within a few weeks B. Frank Ben-nett, a Baltimore contractor, will start for China to build the hespitais, the first of which will be constructed. the first of which will be constructed in Peking. It is to be modeled after the Johns Hopkins Hospital of Baltimore, and the plans were drawn after suggestions by Dr. Winford H. Smith.

The construction of the hospitals is the outcome of investigations during the last five years by two commis-sions for the Rocketeller Foundation. The first, which visited China in 1914, The first, which visited China in 1914, was headed by Dr. Harry Pratt Judson of the University of Chicago. The second commission went to China in 1915 and again in 1916. The plan to give China a much-needed medical reform took definite shape at a meeting of the China medical board in New York last year following the return from Burope of the commission composed of Dr. Wallace Buttrick, director of the China medical board: Dr. composed of Dr. Wallace Buttrick, di-rector of the China medical board; Dr Flexner, head of the Rocke feiler Institute for Medical Research, and Dr. William H. It was announced at that time that the plan of the board contemplated the erection of two hospitals in China at a cost of more than $1,-500,000, the annual upkeep charge of which would be something like $300,000. The plan also called for the co-operation of the China medical board with the missionary agencies, which have a number of smaller hospitals and medical schools in China. The Reckefeller Foundation will

The Rockefeller Foundation will not undertake to send a large number of American physicians to China It is their plan rather to train Chinese in modern medicine to treat their own people. American physicians and surgeons will go out at great demand upon the medical profession made by the war it is not befileved that the foundation will undertake to supply the personnel for the greater Paking school and the Peking

Their construction will probably take up the better part of a year.

While the board believes that it will be a task of years, perhaps many years, to equip a body of modern physicians large enough to care for the medical medic of China, it believes in that result lies the solution of the Stoologoo population of that country. There are diseases in China which are found nowhere class in the world, and the medical wants of the stoologian are used to meeting, and it is for these reasons that the China medical board believes that trained natives will make the best doctors for China.
